“Setting Shame Aside”

Romans 1:1-17

Paul opened his letter to the Romans in typical form. He assured them of his prayers for them and told them how much he wanted to visit. The gospel was his motivation not only for writing, but for everything he was and did. In verse 16 Paul says he is “not ashamed of the gospel because it is the power of God for salvation.” The gospel is not just what God did in Jesus on the cross. It is the good news of what God is doing in and through us today. Therefore, we also are not ashamed and we live the power of the gospel. Setting Shame Aside, we are proud of what God has done for us in Christ and are courageous in our witness to the world that what God has done for us, God intends to do for everyone.
