Preparing for Sunday . . .

Listening for the Good of Everyone Acts 1:12-14, 26

We pray and we consider the greater good of the congregation as we make decisions and move forward in faith.

“The African proverb is right: It does take a village to raise a child. But the responsibility of the village does not stop with its children. It also takes a village to care for the elderly. It takes a village to provide access for the special needs population. It takes a village to keep marriages strong and families united. And, it takes a village to form a family of faith. Are you listening?”
