Family/Child Litany of Dedication

Rev. Reedy: In Mark's Gospel, Jesus said to His disciples, "Let the children come to me. Don't stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children." By God's grace we are given the miracle of children in a variety of ways. May we greet each new son and daughter with joy, and surround them with faith so they may experience God's presence and want to serve God.

People: Never let us neglect children, but help us to delight in them, showing them the welcome God has shown us all.

Rev. Reedy: To the family, in presenting Dawson to God, do you promise in dependence upon God's grace and with the help of the Church to teach him the gifts and claims of the Christian faith and by prayer, word, and example to bring him up in the nurture, discipline, and instruction of the Lord?

Family: We do.

Rev. Owens: Brothers and sisters of First Baptist, I commend to you this family. Will you covenant to stand with them in the nurture of this child? Will your support be constant through success and failure? Will you do all that you can within your power to make this church a true spiritual home for them, always lending them the support of your prayers and your example?

People: With God's help we will seek to follow Christ ourselves so that this family will be strengthened and confirmed in their work as spiritual leaders of their families, and that these children, surrounded by steadfast love, may be nurtured in the faith and strengthened in the way that leads to eternal life.
