Postlude Betty Hubbard

"I will teach all your children, and they will enjoy great peace." (Isaiah 54:13) It is often those who are most present that are most underappreciated. All of us are touched by teachers. They impart wisdom, life lessons, and social skills. They give of their time, and without them, we could not have a functioning civil society. As a church that professes the value of discipleship, then that means we also have to recognize the importance of education, especially those who foster that learning and development. This week FBCL says a special thank you to all those educators in our community, and right here at FBCL with our early childhood ministry staff. Be sure to say a prayer and give a word of appreciation to our community's educators this week!

- Pastor Josh
