We're excited to welcome back a familiar face as our guest preacher for Senior Adult Sunday! Dr. Glenn Jonas has been part of Campbell University since 1994, where he now serves as Charles Howard Professor of Religion and Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. Over the years, he's also stepped into the pulpit as interim pastor for 16 different churches across eastern North Carolina—including right here at First Baptist Lumberton back in 2007–2008.

A Mars Hill grad with seminary training from Southwestern and a Ph.D. from Baylor, Dr. Jonas brings a deep love for both teaching and the church. These days, he's also serving as pastor of Westfield Baptist Church in Dunn. We're grateful for his wisdom, warmth, and faithful leadership.

A Called Church Conference will take place immediately following Worship on Sunday, October 5, 2025 for the purpose of Deacon Election. Five (5) Deacons will be elected.

A ballot with less than or more than 5 selected will be considered void and will not be counted. One deacon will take office immediately to fill a vacancy. The other 4 elected will take office Jan. 1, 2026.

Absentee voting is available Monday, Sept. 29 through Thursday, Oct. 2 from 1:00 to 3:00 pm. Other times by appointment only.

The Standards of Deacon for First Baptist Lumberton

*Informing Biblical Texts Include (the example and teachings of Jesus, but also 1 Timothy 3: 8-13, Acts 6: 1-7, and Romans 16: 1-2.

*As recorded in bylaws adopted on 7/30/25
beginning on pg. 6*

These standards are not intended in any way to depart from the spirit or the intent of what the scriptures say about the eligibility of persons. The Church Standards for deacons shall include the expectations that deacons will be people who have:

1. Demonstrated commitment to the will and ways of Jesus Christ.
2. Full membership in the church with sufficient experience in the congregation to be effective.
3. A pattern of consistent participation in the life and ministry of the church.
4. A record of constructive servant-leadership in the church.
5. A pattern of faithful stewardship of their gifts, talents, energies, and money.

The most important responsibility of the Deacons is offering spiritual servant leadership to the congregation. They also have certain legal and fiduciary responsibilities. In all of their work, they are accountable to the congregation; all actions and decisions of the Deacons are subject to the will of the church in business meetings. As spiritual servant leaders, they are responsible for:

1. Providing, through their own practices of faith, models of spiritual maturity.
2. Serving others through acts of compassion and care.
3. Participating in worship leadership.
4. Serving the vision and mission of the church and providing for their realization by:
 - a. Guiding the congregation's on-going discernment and articulation of its vision and mission.
 - b. Setting strategic areas of focus and direction which serve the vision and mission.
 - c. Clarifying significant goals which support the areas of strategic focus.
 - d. Leading the development of necessary human, financial, and capital resources for the achievement of the congregation's vision and mission.
5. Evaluating the congregation's progress toward achievement of its vision and mission.
6. Reporting and listening regularly to the congregation about the vision and mission, needs and hopes of the church.

The Standards of Deacon for First Baptist may be found in the bylaws on page 6, and an excerpt is listed to the left of this column.

A Note from the Pastor's Desk October 2025

Last weekend, I was in Rhode Island for a football game. When I woke up Saturday morning, it was a crisp 55 degrees! To say it had me excited for fall would be an understatement. It was fitting since Monday (Sept. 22) was the first day of fall. As we look towards the fall season, there are some exciting prospects ahead for our church. Marquee annual events like our Trunk-or-Treat on October 29th (last year we had over 500 children attend, not counting their families) and the youth BBQ fundraiser on November 21st, as well as highlight worship Sundays like Senior Adult Sunday (Sept. 28th) and Friends of Jesus Sunday (Oct. 12), highlight the calendar. Then of course, there is the fun of fall activities like pumpkin patches and hayrides, and awaiting the celebration of holidays like Thanksgiving, and just off in the distance, Advent and Christmas!

Excitement abounds in the church as we wind down a full 2025 and anticipate an equally active 2026. Our finance committee is well on its way to formulating a 2026 budget. Your worship committee is working in conjunction with the ministry staff to plan a theme for the year to guide our worship service planning and other discipleship activities. Attempts are being made to plan multiple mission experiences, both locally and in other parts of the country, for various ages. Summer camps have been booked, senior adult excursions are taking deposits, and opportunities for mission and service to our neighbors are being ironed out among various groups.

I want to highlight the positives and excitement of our community of faith because it seems that there continues to be so much negativity in the world around us that it can zap us of our joy. With the assaults or assassinations of leaders and influencers from various political persuasions, continued wars between countries, and the continued severing of civility and basic human decency, it would be easy to lose our joy. But I am reminded of a quote from Canadian author Robin Sharma, who once said, "What you focus on grows, what you think about expands, and what you dwell upon determines your destiny."

The Bible is full of people who fell on hard times, but there remained a constant element across all of those experiences...keep your mind, and your heart, focused on the Lord. While there are many hard things going on around us (side note: maybe we should all let go of our social media a lot more), there is much we can and should be grateful for. So I hope you will join me in choosing to hold to the words from this week's psalter, Psalm 146, which opens declaring, "Praise the Lord, my soul. I will praise the Lord all my life; I will sing praise to my God as long as I live."

Rev. Joshua K. Owens, Senior Pastor

This fall starting September 17th, our Wednesday night adult Bible study will be "Exploring the Spiritual Disciplines." Together we'll look at twelve classic spiritual practices that have shaped Christian faith throughout the centuries. We'll use Richard Foster's classic book, Celebration of Discipline, as a resource. While you are not required to purchase the book, those who want to go deeper are encouraged to get their own copy.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 5 WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY

We'll observe the Ordinance of Communion.
Rev. Doug Reedy will be recognized for 20 years of service.
At the conclusion of Worship, a Called Church Conference will take place for the purpose of Deacon Election.

From Our Associate Pastor

Twenty years used to seem like a long time. As I approach my 20th year anniversary at First Baptist, it doesn't seem possible that it has been that long. I feel the same way about my 21st anniversary with Bonnie. Time most definitely flies when you are having fun.

Of course, not every moment of every day is "fun". We have traveled through some rough patches. Both major hurricanes tested us but ultimately brought us closer together as a church. We have also survived our share of controversies and attacks from without and within. Throughout all of this, one constant remains. We want to follow the lead of Christ Jesus our Lord.

We have been willing to agree to disagree on the best way to emulate Jesus from time to time, but I cannot think of a more positive time than now. Everyone wants our church to do well and we are working together to get it done. We have so many challenges related to our aging buildings, city population decline, and changing culture, but we forge ahead. We have an active class of young adults and a sizable number of preschoolers.

We have the courage to stand our ground when under attack from elements of our community. We try hard to serve not only each other, but also the least of these. We have become more diverse politically, racially, and socioeconomically over the years. I am proud to have served alongside you during this time and look forward to our time ahead.

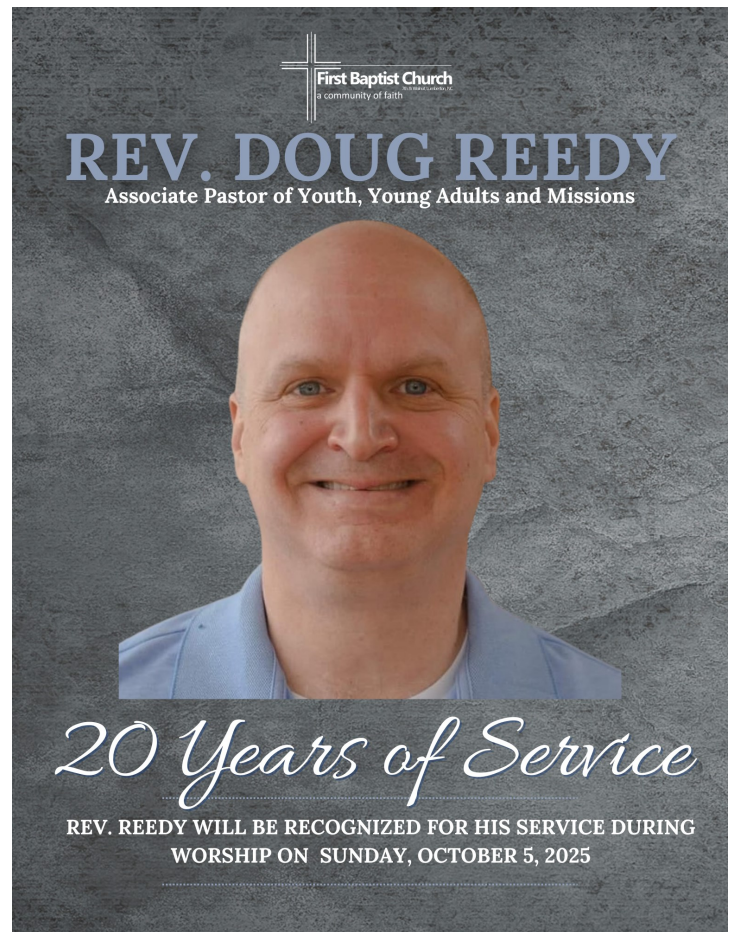

So, thank you FBC. Thank you, Bonnie and Kaitlyn, (and Cream) for tolerating multiple nights, weekends, and summer trips away. I am so happy Kaitlyn has experienced so many great experiences with the youth group she had to sacrifice so much of her dad time to when she was younger. Thank you to Josh, Tim, Kandace, and Len plus the variety of ministers and staff I have worked with over the years. I have learned so much from each of you.

I have a huge thank you to the many youth I have had the pleasure to work with over the years. Watching you grow spiritually and emotionally during your time with our group, then watching you become adults, begin careers, and get married (whether or not I did the service haha) has been special. You continually impress and inspire me.

There is however no time like the present. Our youth group, like our congregation, is not as huge in numbers as it was 20, 30, or more years ago. But I have a great deal of hope in the current generation. They will accomplish great things and make God's kingdom on earth a better reflection of God's kingdom in heaven. This is not the largest youth group I have walked alongside of, but their impact will be huge. I love every one of them dearly (but Kaitlyn is my favorite lol).

As to the future, I'll leave you with an Irish blessing "May the best day of your past be the worst day of your future". Let's help make that happen for everyone.

Grace & Peace,
Doug

Rev. Doug Reedy's 20th Year!

On October 1st, Rev. Doug Reedy (a.k.a. "Doug") reaches a BIG milestone — 20 years of faithfully serving our students and families at First Baptist Lumberton! Doug isn't one for fanfare, but we still want to honor him in a meaningful way. We invite you to share a word of thanks, a memory, or a blessing. These messages will be collected and given to Doug on Sunday, October 5th during worship. We'll have a basket available for those who wish to bring a handwritten card.

Please share this opportunity with others who know Doug — let's shower him with gratitude for two decades of faithful ministry! Everyone is invited to join us for worship on October 5th as we celebrate Doug together.

Parents of Youth, check your email and/or texts from Doug for specifics for upcoming activities and trips.

Sign up through Rev. Doug, or scan the QR code on the flyers to securely register and pay online via card.

Trunk or Treat!

We are excited for our Trunk or Treat community event on Wednesday, October 29th! We anticipate the need for lots of candy and treats again this year!

How you can help make this year's event the best ever:

1. CANDY & TREATS

Halloween candy seems to sell out quickly so we ask for donations well in advance of the event. Donations may be dropped off in the office, or if you have an Amazon Prime or Walmart+ you can have the candy shipped directly to us! Use mailing address 606 N. Walnut Street, Lumberton, NC 28358 if you choose this option.

2. CAR DECORATING & CANDY DISTRIBUTION

We also need people to sign-up to decorate their vehicle and/or hand out candy. Call the church office or Rev. Doug Reedy if you are willing to help (910-739-4336).

We need folks to be "riders" for the bus team route to Wesley Pines!

Pick-up time 10 am

We have a nice rotation of folks willing to drive our bus to Wesley Pines to pick up residents and bring them to church on Sundays, but we can use a few more "riders" to be just be a presence on the bus and offer support to the driver. If this is a role you can help fill, we will glad to add you to the schedule! Contact the office to express your willingness to assist.

From the pages of history...

from the April 28, 2005 publication of First Baptist News

Message from Margie

The famous Swiss psychologist Carl Jung once said "Hurry is not 'of the devil' it is the devil." If this is true, many of us who live busy, hurried lives are tempted by a force that can lead us away from God. We are busy with work, with children's activities, with social events, with church activities, meeting home and family needs—and the list goes on.

It isn't that we are involved in meaningless activities. So many of our "busy" activities are really good, worthwhile things. However, too many really good activities can keep us in a frenzy.

Psalm 4:10 reminds us to "Be quiet and know that I am God." Let me ask you, when was the last time you sat down and did nothing? If we wait until everything else is done, it won't happen. We have to be intentional and plan for this kind of time—a time to meditate, to talk and to listen to God.

These suggestions may help:

- Make time for quiet. It will involve choosing priorities and making adjustments.
- Practice the prayer of quiet. It will help to build a relationship with God who wants to love us into peace and serenity.
- Let go of fear. Quiet, prayerful moments will take away the fears that compel us to scurry about in search of false security.
- Scale down and simplify our lives so we can hear God's voice and yield to His trust and love.

When God spoke to Elijah on the mountain, it was not in the strong wind, or in the earthquake, or in the fire. God spoke to him in a still, quiet voice. He will speak to us today—if we can be still and quiet, and listen.
