Call to WorshipDianne Britt

One: We gather as a church community, young and old. Seasoned in the faith, and those who are just beginning their journey.

Many: We are grateful for the presence of all the generations.

One: We recognize the wisdom of those further along the journey.

Many: We receive their knowledge with humility and excitement.

One: Yet we acknowledge the potential still to be filled.

Many: May we all, young and old, seek the Spirit of God so that we may continue to live into the glorious opportunities our Lord provides us all.

GIVING

Rev. Doug Reedy's 20th Year!

On October 1st, Rev. Doug Reedy (a.k.a. “Doug”) reaches a BIG milestone — 20 years of faithfully serving our students and families at First Baptist Lumberton! Doug isn’t one for fanfare, but we still want to honor him in a meaningful way. We invite you to share a word of thanks, a memory, or a blessing. These messages will be collected and given to Doug on Sunday, October 5th during worship. We’ll also have a basket available for those who wish to bring a handwritten card.

Please share this opportunity with others who know Doug — let’s shower him with gratitude for two decades of faithful ministry! Everyone is invited to join us for worship on October 5th as we celebrate Doug together.
